Do you eat out after church on Sundays? Why not attend the Donation Dinner after church in Fellowship Hall on October 26, with Debbie Doebele, Connie Hodges and Priscilla Vermillion preparing the meal. We ask members to join us for food and fellowship. Donations will be used for the church budget. Again, on November 16, there will be another Donation Dinner with Brenda Hofmann, Hazel Janssen, Mary Morgan and Myrtle Stages preparing the meal. We are hoping that other church members will volunteer to prepare a meal. Please contact Debbie Doebele at 256-2133.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4
ELECTION DAY

Our Annual Fall Harvest Bazaar for Missions is coming November 8. The Silent Auction booth is needing items for auction. If you need help in getting your items to the church, please call Rachel Moore at 256-2934.

The Coffee Shop needs hungry people to come eat with them! Selections will be Chili, Stew, Pulled Pork Sandwiches, Brisket Sandwiches, Cinnamon Rolls, and your favorite pies. Coffee, soft drinks, tea and water will also be provided.

The Annual Shamrock Community Thanksgiving Dinner, sponsored by Shamrock Ministerial Alliance, is Monday, November 3, from 5:30 - 7:00 pm. Our church has been asked to bring 9 pecan pies and 9 pumpkin pies. If you would like to donate any pies, please call Priscilla Vermillion. She can be contacted at 256-3549 before 1:00 pm and after 5:00 pm.

Between 1:00 pm and 5:00 pm, she can be reached at 806-334-0611.

For several years, the Northwest Texas Conference of United Methodist Women have promoted mission giving through the Burning the Candle program during the UMW Annual Meeting in September.

UMW In 2014, it cost $28.35 per minute to support the UMW's missions throughout the world.

This year, the Shamrock UMW will burn the candle for 11 minutes in memory of: Fred Hofmann, Joyce Woods, Nadyne Williams Lovelady, James Reneau, Dr. D. E. Blacketter, and John Stages III.

Next time you do some canning, remember the Bazaar!!!
It's a FACT - Homemade Goodies sell very well!!!
